STYLE

The longing for old values is growing and once again we are following the traces of the past. In order to keep them alive and underscore their uniqueness. Is it the timelessness that speaks to us and fascinates us? Or that which has gone before, with its particular radiance, its presence and inherent loveliness?

Vintage – the designer line with the subtle charm and strength of the original has the answers. In the colors, in the textures and in the ornamentation. With the signs of time that tell us stories. That provide impulses and enable us to experience the origins once more.
